E. Nature of the Proceedings and Summary of the Case and Relevant Facts

The above-referenced case is a civil lawsuit brought by Plaintiffs under the laws of the United States and United Kingdom seeking money damages for injuries resulting from the alleged theft and laundering of funds belonging to Plaintiffs. See Ex. A (Plaintiffs' Amended Complaint). Defendant Felix Sater is a longtime associate of Viktor Khrapunov, the former mayor of the City of Almaty, and his son, Ilyas Khrapunov. Defendant Daniel Ridloff is a former business associate of Sater. Defendant Bayrock Inc. is an entity established in the State of Delaware, United States of America, and wholly owned and controlled by Sater. Defendant GHS is an entity established in the State of New York, United States of America, and wholly owned and controlled by Sater. Defendant RRMI-DR LLC is an entity established in the State of New York, United States of America, and wholly owned and controlled by Ridloff. Defendant Ferrari Holdings LLC is an entity established in the State of New Jersey, United States of America. Defendant MeM Energy Partners LLC is an entity established in the State of Delaware, United States of America, and owned and controlled by Mendel Mochkin, an individual domiciled in the State of New York, United States of America.

Plaintiffs allege that Mukhtar Ablyazov, the former controlling shareholder and Chairman of BTA Bank, and Viktor Khrapunov stole billions of dollars in Kazakhstan by abuse of their offices; Ablyazov through embezzlement from BTA Bank, and Viktor Khrapunov, with the assistance of his wife, Leila Khrapunova, through corruption of his office as Mayor of Almaty. After Ablyazov fled to the United Kingdom, BTA brought a series of civil fraud actions against him, resulting in the issuance of a worldwide freezing order by the U.K. courts. Ablyazov repeatedly defied orders of the U.K. courts to disclose his assets, leading to his being sentenced to 22 months imprisonment for contempt. Ablyazov fled sentencing in the U.K. and went into hiding, and the U.K. courts awarded BTA billions of dollars in judgments against Ablyazov and his associates for their theft from BTA.<sup>1</sup> Ablyazov was subsequently discovered and arrested in France. He has since been released from French prison but remains in France. Viktor and Leila Khrapunov likewise fled Kazakhstan and currently reside in Switzerland. The Khrapunovs have been convicted and sentenced in Kazakhstan in absentia on corruption charges. Plaintiffs allege that the Khrapunovs worked with Sater and Ilyas Khrapunov to fund entities and investments relating to businesses and real estate in the United States.

Plaintiffs have alleged that the Defendants conspired with Ablyazov, Viktor Khrapunov, Leila Khrapunov, and Ilyas Khrapunov to evade the U.K. worldwide freezing orders and conceal stolen assets from investigators around the world, including the Public Prosecutor of Geneva. The Defendants are alleged to have helped launder proceeds of Ablyazov's and Viktor Khrapunov's embezzlement from BTA Bank and Almaty into the United States through numerous investment schemes. Plaintiffs allege that Defendants Sater and Ridloff spearheaded five of these schemes, only to later turn on Ablyazov and the Khrapunovs and pocket a portion of the stolen funds for themselves. The Defendant entities also are alleged to have received stolen funds.

Plaintiffs and Defendants in the present lawsuit currently are engaged in discovery concerning their claims and defenses – where Leila Khrapunova and Ilyas Khrapunov are third-party witnesses. The Court accordingly has not addressed the merits of Plaintiffs' allegations. In connection with a related lawsuit in which Ilyas Khrapunov was a defendant, this Court previously requested assistance from the Geneva Civil Court with obtaining discovery from Ilyas and Viktor Khrapunov. See City of Almaty, et ano. v. Mukhtar Ablyazov, et al., Case No. 15 Civ. 5345 (S.D.N.Y.). Ilyas Khrapunov was deposed by the parties to that action in Switzerland over two days on February 1 and 2, 2018, pursuant to a commission issued by this Court and approved by the appropriate authorities in Switzerland. Under the Rules of Evidence in the United States federal court, that earlier testimony may not be admissible in the above-referenced action.

Plaintiffs contend that the information sought by this request is available to the Geneva Civil Court. This Court respectfully requests that the Geneva Civil Court act on this request expeditiously.

F. Evidence to Be Obtained

Based on the foregoing, this Court respectfully requests that the Geneva Civil Court obtain the following testimony from Ilyas Khrapunov, a resident of Switzerland, and Leila Khrapunova, a resident of Switzerland, in response to this Letter of Request that may be lawfully obtained by the appropriate judicial authority in its discretion, including any questioning by representatives of the parties, as permitted, that relates to Plaintiffs' allegations against Defendants.
